I On Spontaneous forms of Organization vs. Vanguard Parties

* Begin with our age

problem from Marx's day to ours.

Here include:

-- Mx on organization, esp. IWA and relation to Paris Commune

-- Engles and 2nd International-Erfurt

-- Lenin on What is to be Done? -> State and Revolution -> last years, especially Trade Union debate

-- Soviets as spontaneous forms of organization (Kronstadt?) NO? & Rosa Luxemburg

-- Council Communism-- Pannekoek

-- Spanish Revolution and Hungarian, Revolution

this NB

?? Again, brings us to our age but can't solve here

II Hegel and Marx -- on dialectics of philosphy and organization

- --Hegel's Phenomenology, esp. Absolute Knowledge, esp. last paragraph on ? of Organization and Erinnerung
- -- Marx's "Critique of the Hegelian Dialectic"
 - & vs. Lukacs' Young Hegel on end of Phenomenology
- -- Relation of Hegel/Marx-- Critique of the Gotha Program as ground but not sufficient itself.

III Hegel and Lenin

-- ? of forms of organization is not answer

--Whatis to be Done? / State and Revolution

- -- Lenin's Philosophic Motebooks-- not as in 1953 or 1973, but 1987.
- -- ? of "Idea of Cognition" and "Absolute Idea" in Lenin's Philosophic Notebooks -- as in letters
- -- Hegel's own difference (Science of Logic/ Smaller Logic)
- -- On Attitudes to Objectivity

in Hegel, in Lenin, in our age

J.V Dialectics of Organization and Philosophy in Post-World War II World

--Miners' general strike/Cameroonian-- Third World revolutions

? ground) -- 1953 letters on Ab

& roof?

- 1953 letters on Absolute Idea -- concentration on organization and on 3 final syllogisms

Dual movement is not alone, but Self-Thinking Idea= MHism

-- MHism's concept of organization (Constitution)

-- Intorduction/Overview (of trilogy of revolution??)

This is on ourselves...
